

Listen to it on
KWMR
89.3 FM & 90.5 FM

WEST NILE VIRUS (WNV):
Partnering for Prevention

A West Marin Community Town Hall Forum

Presented by
The Marin County West Nile Virus Task Force

The Dance Palace
5th and B St, Point Reyes Station

May 11, 2005 at 5:30 PM

facilitated by
Supervisor Steve Kinsey

Presenters/Panelists include:

- Supervisor Steve Kinsey & Aide David Escobar
- Fred Schwartz, MD, Public Health Officer
- Nathalie Bera, MD, MPH, Deputy Public Health Officer
- Andrew Horvath, MPH, Communicable Disease Epidemiologist
- Jim Wanderscheid, Manager, Marin/Sonoma Mosquito & Vector Control District (MSMVCD)
- Ron Keith, Assist Manager, Marin/Sonoma Mosquito & Vector Control District (MSMVCD)
- Stacy Carlsen, Agricultural Commissioner
- Arthur Craigmill, PhD, Toxicology Specialist, UC Davis
- Gregg Tolliver, MD, Infectious Disease Physician, Marin General Hospital
- Armando Alegria, Environmental Health Services
- Elizabeth Goldblatt, PhD, Chair, BCPUD MS Mosquito & Vector Control Committee

The Marin County West Nile Virus Task Force is a collaboration of agencies which include:

Bolinas Community Public Utility District
California Department of Health Services
Kaiser Permanente
Marin County Environmental Health Services
Marin County Department of Agriculture
Marin County Department of Health & Human Services
Marin County Office of Emergency Services
Marin County Department of Parks and Open Space

Marin County Veterinary Medical Association
Marin General Hospital
Marin Humane Society
Marin Medical Society
Marin Municipal Water District
Marin-Sonoma Mosquito & Vector Control District
National Park Service
Novato Community Hospital

Stinson Beach County Water District